Free Dental Clinic Returns to Kanab

KANAB, UT – The Southwest Utah Public Health Department (SWUPHD) has again teamed up with the University of Utah School of Dentistry to provide a free dental clinic for uninsured and income-qualified Kane County residents of all ages.

Appointments will be scheduled for March 9-13 and will include exams, x-rays, cleaning, sealants, fillings, and extractions at no cost.

To be eligible you must have an income lower than 200% of the federal poverty level (example: below $66,000 for a family of four), be uninsured or have no dental coverage, and be a Utah resident.

Openings are limited. To schedule an appointment or check qualifications, call 435-296-5477 (select option 3).
